Dublin is a unique cosmopolitan city: As an English-speaking country within the Eurozone, Ireland's thriving industry and economy is full of great companies and institutions. Dublin also has a wide range of cultural options, where Irish tradition and internationality meets. The cosmopolitan and fun-loving warmth of the Irish creates a relaxed feel-good atmosphere. You can also experience the beautiful landscape of the Green Island and tourist destinations that are just a few hours' drive outside of Dublin and can be easily reached by train or bus.

Our partner, ADC College, is an accredited training centre, and it has been successfully cooperating within the framework of Erasmus+ projects with vocational schools in the European Union for many years. Most of the cost is covered by European funding (Erasmus+ programme). The trip includes a personal contribution of € 250.
